

PASSIVHAUS SOCIAL

Passivhaus Campaign for Local Authorities & Housing Associations

BIRMINGHAM

Image: Saffron Lane ©Design Buro

A free event for Local Authorities and Housing Associations
by invitation only.

If you wish to attend please contact:
kirsten@passivhaustrust.org.uk

Date

12 September 2017

Time

13.30 - 17.30

Venue

Acivico - Louisa House
92-93 Edward Street
Birmingham
B1 2RA

In association with

Join the conversation
@PassivhausTrust

#PHsocial

A free event for leading-edge local authorities and housing associations who have adopted, or are considering adopting, the Passivhaus standard. Invitation only. The Trust's key objectives are to:

1. Network with relevant organisations.
2. Learn from what has been tried & why.
3. Identify obstacles to adoption of Passivhaus

Programme

13.30 - 14.00:	Registration
14.00 - 14.10:	Introduction: Jon Bootland, Passivhaus Trust
14.10 - 14.30:	Passivhaus social housing, costs and value: John Lefever, Hastoe Housing
14.30 - 14.50:	Procurement approaches: Emma Osmundsen, Exeter City Council
14.50 - 15.00:	Q&A
15.00 - 15.20	Coffee break
15.20 - 15.40:	Video clip - The adoption of Passivhaus within Norwich City Council: Ben Binns, Hamson Barron Smith
15.40 - 16.00:	Passivhaus projects in the Midlands: Paul Neep, Architype and Sarah Price, Design Buro
16.00 - 16.45:	Feedback from attendees & facilitated discussion - what have they done, what's worked & what hasn't, are there common lessons?
16.45 - 17.00:	Final discussion - what can PHT do to help remove some of the barriers?
17.30:	Close

Campaign Partners

Supporter
the design buro